

NHS EMPLOYERS WORKFORCE SUMMIT

13 JUNE 2017

Time: 9:00 – 17:15

Venue: ACC Liverpool

Objectives

- Provide expert opinion and tangible, quick-win solutions to workforce challenges to help improve organisational effectiveness.
- Inspire delegates to think differently by sharing best practice from within and outside of the NHS.
- Provide an opportunity for delegates to make useful connections with others.

Programme

9 – 9:30am Registration, networking, exhibition and refreshments

9:30 – 9:45am Welcome/opening remarks

Sir Andrew Cash OBE, Chair, NHS Employers Policy Board
Daniel Mortimer, Chief Executive, NHS Employers

9:45 – 10:45am Key note

Matthew Syed, Olympian and author of Black Box Thinking, discusses safe cultures and learning from mistakes

10:45 – 11:00am Refreshments

11am – 12:15pm Workshops - session one:

- Workforce supply: time to take stock of our domestic workforce strategy?
- The 21st Century public servant
- Tackling a wicked problem
- Bending over backwards: are we flexible enough to retain staff?

Event supporter:

Confed17 week supporter:

12:15 – 1pm

Lunch, networking and exhibition

1 – 2:15pm

Workshops - session two:

- Workforce supply: time to take stock of our domestic workforce strategy?
- The 21st Century public servant
- Tackling a wicked problem
- Bending over backwards: are we flexible enough to retain staff?

2:15 – 2:35pm

Refreshments, networking and exhibition

2:35 – 3:20pm

Productivity challenge – understanding the research

Anita Charlesworth, Director of Policy, Health Foundation

3:20 – 4pm

Panel session: National workforce strategic priorities

NHS England, NHS Improvement, Department of Health, NHS Employers, Health Education England

4 – 4:50pm

Key note

John Timpson, Chairman of Timpson, shares insights on developing good employer brands.

4:50 – 5:15pm

Closing remarks

Daniel Mortimer, Chief Executive, NHS Employers

5:15pm-7pm

Networking reception

Event supporter:

Confed17 week supporter:

